REPUBLICAN MEETINGS.

Hon. J. V. Quarles at—

Jefferson, Saturday, November 4.

Beloit, Monday, November 6.

Hon. Phyl Norcross at—

Jefferson, Saturday, November 4.

Local committees are requested to make arrangements for the members.

The report that Mr. Keyes had made up his mind to withdraw does not seem to have any foundation. The latest from Madison is that he would not withdraw unless Hazeltin would, and that he is still going on with his canvass.

Every republican in Janesville should stand by his party and its ticket, and under no circumstances permit himself to be seduced by any side issue or independent movement. Every vote will stand for a good deal next Tuesday, and the entire republican strength should be thrown for the straight republican ticket.

Mr. John B. Gough has been compelled to cancel his lecturing engagements for the present. He started west a short time ago with his wife and a physician and attempted to fill the dates, but he broke down and following the advice of his physician returned home for rest. He will make an effort to fill his engagements later in the season.

Beloit is becoming quite pretentious for a little town, and already aspires to have water works. On Thursday, J. M.

Cobb, C. F. C. Collins and T. C. Chamberlin, as the incorporators, filed with the secretary of state, the articles of association of the Beloit water works, the capital stock of which is $100,000 divided into 1,000 shares of $100 each.

It is hoped that Beloit will do better than Janesville. The latter has had water works on paper for a long time, but will not have the real article for some time.

There can be but one opinion in regard to the result in this congressional district next Tuesday. Mr. Williams will be elected as a matter of course, but just what the majority will be, cannot be foretold, but a judicious guess would put it at from 1,500 to 2,000. There are some who think his majority will go far beyond these figures, while there are a number who conjecture that it will be less than 1,000 and a few who profess to believe that he will be defeated. Nearly everybody is in the dark as to the prohibition vote. It is a matter about which there can be only wild guessing. In the counties which now compose the first incumbent tendered him the nomination, which he accepts.

Colonel Britton is one of the strongest republicans the convention could have selected. He is not only a very successful and practical business man, but his record as a soldier is one of the very best.

He is an unadorned republican, unflinching and thoroughly in earnest, and an excellent representative of the people. He has the confidence of friends and neighbors with whom he has lived years, and will receive almost the solid vote of the party. The republicans of Janesville should take off their coats from this out, and leave not a stone unturned for Colonel Britton's election.

THE JEANNETTE.

Charges of a Serious Nature Preferred

Against Engineer Melville.

His Search for De Long's Party Said to Have Been Conducted in a Reprehensible

Manner.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 3.—The Tribune this morning will print an interview with Dr.

D. P. Collins, of this city, brother of the late Jerome J. Collins, scientist of the Jeannette expedition. Dr. Collins says: "We have official position as commander of the expedition to persecute in every conceivable way some of the members of the commission. My brother was placed under arrest for no reason whatever. That Lieut. Dan-hower admitted to me when I was in New York. Capt. De Long refused to allow my brother at certain times to do any kind of work, and purposely allowed all notes, photographs and records of the expedition prepared by my brother to sink. We have evidence that De Long forced him to remain behind when he voluntarily went ahead with Nims and Norris in search of relief, my brother being in the best condition of any member of the party to do so. There is evidence that Bartlett, who is now

Siberia, one of the seamen, is in possession of valuable facts, and we believe he has been kept in Siberia purposely by the officers of the expedition, so that his testimony will not be given before the court. We are also in possession of fact information that the findings of the bodies of the De Long party, he used the most blasphemous and scandalous language concerning my brother's body. We also have reason for believing that the report made by Melville as to the condition of the weather, which he alleged prevented him from going to the relief of the De Long party, was false, for the dates on which he declared the weather was bad are known to have been made up by him. Collins further asserts that De Long ordered the bodies of his men to be buried in the ice, and that he refused to allow the bodies to be taken to the shore.

Collins and Danhower were not permitted to assist in the burial. Dr.

Collins adds: "We happen to know that

De Long refused Melville to go to the De Long's relief himself, and send some one, and that Melville would do nothing. He first gave an order to Danhower to go and then commenced to make up his mind. He refused to allow the bodies to be taken to the shore.

Cause of the Dissolution of the Whisky

Pool.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 2.—The Enquirer says:

The whisky pool has gone to pieces. The day, not only here, but throughout the country. Cincinnati blames the market, as prices all over the country are based on the quotations here. The blame is chiefly laid on Peoria.

The distillers at that point are blamed for faithfulness to their obligations. As Mr. Stevenson, secretary of the Export association, said to-night, "they have not kept faith, and they never will."

The first pool was formed last year, to take effect Nov. 21 and continue to the first of May.

All the members of that association stood up in full the monetary obligations they assumed, except the Peoria men, who have not yet paid their dues. Their behavior then has only been equaled by their treachery this season. The distillers of the west, north of Kentucky, have made a united capacity of 125,000 bushels a day, which is considerably more than the country can take up. To remedy this over-production the Export association was formed, and it was agreed to reduce the production to 40 per cent. of the capacity. To reduce the production the capacity of the distillers in the association only forty-three per cent. of the capacity. It was found there was still an overproduction. At the meeting held in Chicago a short time ago, when Peoria men were present, a resolution was adopted agreeing to cut down the capacity to 30 per cent, which was a cut of 25 per cent. on the production agreed to at the meeting held in Peoria. The Peoria men were the first to complain. To the distillers of the Peoria district, which is overflowing with whisky, with which this market is flooded whenever Peoria has a bad marketing Cincinnati in the markets of the east and in the south, in WAR IN RATES.

The Southern Texas Roads Refusing to Concede with the Gould System.

St. Louis, Nov. 3.—What may develop into a freight war has appeared here in the form of a circular issued by the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio, the Texas & New Orleans, and the Louisiana & Western railways, of southern Texas, announcing that they will no longer recognize through bills of lading issued by the Gould roads. Shippers here to points on the above-named roads are requested to consign goods to the Cairo Short Line, by which bills of lading will be issued, rates protected, and as good time as by the Gould roads.

This action is said to have been taken because the Gould roads have failed to —A social dancing party will be given at La Prairie grange hall, this evening, and quite a number of Janesville people have made arrangements to attend. Anderson's orchestra will furnish the music.

—There will be a meeting of republicans this evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the law office of John W. Sale, for the purpose of organizing for Tuesday's election. A general attendance of republicans is desired.
—The case of the state vs. Joseph L. Chamberlain, mentioned in last evening's Gazette as occupying the attention of the municipal court, was ended late in the afternoon, by the defendant being discharged.
—The Janesville Concordia society will give one of their social dancing parties next Monday evening. The Light Guard band has been engaged to furnish the music, and all who attend will enjoy themselves.
—The funeral of the late Jeremiah Donavan took place at St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock this morning. Rev. Father McGinnity officiating. Many friends of the deceased followed the remains to the cemetery, where they were laid to rest.
—Marshall Hogan found Charlie Hill drunk and disorderly last night, and was compelled to take him to jail. This morning Charlie appeared in the municipal court to answer to the charge, and was given forty days in the county jail, at hard labor.
—There was an immense jam at Apollo hall, last night, and the society must have realized a very handsome sum of money. City Marshal Hogan was awarded the black-thorn stick, he having received 251 votes. If the fair continues to draw as it has commenced, it will prove one of the grandest financial successes ever inaugurated in this city.
—Mr. W. L. Denning, the proprietor of the popular Oak Lawn breed of Poland China swine, has just sold to Mr. S. Saberson, of Alta, Iowa, five thoroughbred pigs, seven months old, for which he received $167. Mr. Denning is a successful breeder of Poland China pigs, and his stock has the reputation of being of the best in the county.
—That our readers may be informed of the magnitude of the business done in this city in the way of shipping hogs, we will state that two of our leading dealers paid out about $10,000 for live hogs, the price ranging from $6.10 to $6.15 per hundred pounds, although some extra lots were at a higher figure. The hogs were shipped to the Chicago market.
—The members of Rescue Hook and Ladder company No. 1 are making arrangements for their annual party at Cannon's hall on Thanksgiving eve. The dancing parties of this company have always been of the first order, and this will be no exception to that order. A general invitation to all is extended by the committee. Anderson's orchestra furnishes the music.
—In the play of Joshua Whitcomb which is given to-night by the famous Donnan Thompson, everybody acknowledges that the character of "Cy Prime," the old man who brags of being "high on to eighty," is a host in himself in way of making the play complete and successful, and the only "Cy Prime" in existence is impersonated by Mr. George Beane, an old and well-known actor. Thompson's "Josh" without Beane's "Cy" would not be complete.
Joshua Whitcomb To-Night.
Deeman Thompson and his well-known comedy drama of Joshua Whitcomb, will be seen at Myers' opera house this evening. A series of good hearty laughs are thoroughly enjoyable, and one who cannot secure this in the cheerful society of Josh Whitcomb, must be of an unusual serious turn of mind. The company is the same that has been traveling together for a number of seasons, and their entertainment has been witnessed by hundreds of thousands.
The Weather.
The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning registered 34 degrees above zero, and at 1 p. m. at 51 degrees above. Clear and pleasant. One year ago to-day the register stood for the same hours 30 and 35 degrees above.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2, 1 a. m.—The following are the indications for to-day:
For the upper lake region—Warmer, partly cloudy weather. In the northern portion local rains, winds mostly southerly, with lower pressure.
Another Old Settler Gone.
Edward Spear died at his home in the town of Rock at six o'clock this morning after an illness which has continued for several years. He was born in Vermont in 1807, and came to Janesville in 1847. He was a carpenter by trade, and one of the old houses are yet standing he helped to build. Many years ago he moved on his farm in the town of Rock where he continued till the day of his death. He leaves a wife and two children and many friends to mourn his death. The funeral will be held at the family residence on Sunday afternoon at one o'clock.

A HAPPY GATHERING.

The thirty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lappin—how the event was celebrated.

Thirty-five years ago on the second day of November, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lappin were married in this city, and desiring to celebrate that event, invitations to the number of about two hundred were issued to their friends and neighbors last week, and the celebration with all its joys and pleasant associations, took place at their beautiful and happy home last evening. But going back thirty-five years, we learn that the host and hostess were married in a little frame house which stood on the southeast corner of Bluff and North first streets. It was then owned and occupied by Mrs. Lappin's father—Mr. Timothy Jackman. Amid all the wonderful changes that have taken place in Janesville since that time—through the storms of summer and the blasts of winter—this little house has remained unmoved to this day. After that happy ceremony thirty-five years ago, Mr. Lappin and his bride, and Mr. Charles Stevens and wife, the latter couple having then been recently married, started on a wedding trip to Milwaukee driving across the country, each couple in a one-horse buggy. Looking at this from this day, it may seem to have been a tiresome wedding tour, but there has not gone out from Janesville since that time, a happier couple than Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lappin, who, in the pioneer days of Janesville, made a wedding trip of more than 140 miles in a buggy.

There was hardly any one, we judge, outside of the family, who understood last evening, the special reason why so many friends were called together, until after the company had assembled, and then the truth became known. The guests began to arrive a little after seven o'clock, and by half-past eight the parlors were filled with as cheery and delighted a company as ever graced a home in this city. It was a feast of good things from beginning to end. The tables were spread shortly after nine o'clock, and all the appetite could wish, and far more than it could manage, was served for refreshments. The supper was indeed a sumptuous one, especially marked in great variety and in elegance of preparation. After this part of the feast was over, some of the company spent the time at various games, while others danced to the music of Anderson's band. Mrs. Lappin opening the ball after the time-honored custom. Between twelve and one o'clock the guests departed for their homes, leaving with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lappin their heart's best wishes, and trusting that time may deal kindly with them, and that they may yet spend together many more years of health and happiness.

Those who accepted invitations to be present were:
Mr. and Mrs. J. D. King, Mrs. H. O. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Tallman, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. J. H. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. T. Judd, Mrs. J. J. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
